Xtreme Bronc Riding Check-in

The XBR Contestant Check-In Tent will be located on the lawn to the south of the PRCA Contestant Office.

The XBR Rodeo Secretary and the Head Judge will confirm your Team Name, provide you with check-in paperwork, and waivers for any Non-Member Contestants.

- You will need to check in for each performance in which you are competing on the day of competition in order to receive your contestant back number.
- Non-XBR Members must complete and sign a Waiver of Liability during Team Check-in.
- XBR Blacklist will be strictly enforced! Outstanding fines must be paid in full prior to competition.

Please have your XBR card or XBR Back Number on you at all times. This will help the security team in keeping the back gate area safe and protected. Please know we will do our best to allow everyone who needs to be in the back area access; the rodeo security team is doing the best they can over a week-long event.

We ask that all non-contestants DO NOT enter through the back gate area of the arena. This is a high traffic area for arena/contract personnel, media, and competing contestants only and we are constricted with limited space.

This will be strictly enforced by Rodeo Personnel as well as the XBR Rodeo Officials.

Contestant Companions. Each Team will be permitted to have ONE companion with them behind/on the chutes to push their horse out. Contestant dress code will be strictly enforced and extends to companions. Remember, in addition to when in the arena, a long-sleeve button-down western shirt and cowboy hat must be worn when in the contestant ready area and on the chutes.

**NO COMPANION PASSES WILL BE DISTRIBUTED****

As this is a Centennial 100th Anniversary Event, audience seating is SOLD OUT.

Please Note: there is NO COMPANION or CONTESTANT FAMILY SEATING AVAILABLE at this event.

Please do not contact the Rodeo Office, PRCA Secretary, or other Rodeo Personnel to request contestant passes.

Contestant Hospitality

The Ellensburg Rodeo invites XBR contestants to visit the "Volunteer Tent" for a complimentary meal each day before the rodeo, located just northeast of the arena.
